FREE!
LIVE ON ZOOM

A webinar for parents & caregivers

Play and Social Skills: How to Play With Your Child

Play is where children learn to connect, take turns, and talk. Learn simple ways to join your child's play, make it count, and turn everyday games into practice for the skills that come next. In plain language, with time for your questions.

PRACTICAL PARENT TRAINING · LED BY A BCBA

Pick the time that works for you

December 5
SATURDAY

12:00 PM
EST

December 9
WEDNESDAY

6:00 PM
EST

What we will cover

Follow their lead
How to join the play your child already loves without taking it over.

Imitation is the doorway
Copying games that build sounds, gestures, and back-and-forth.

Taking turns and sharing
Simple games that teach waiting, trading, and playing alongside others.

Play that teaches
Making playtime the easiest practice for language and social skills.

Hosted by Joshua Levins
BCBA, M.S. · Creative Learning

Save your spot!
Scan the code or visit
projectearlylearning.com