

FREE!

LIVE ON ZOOM

A webinar for parents & caregivers

Tantrums and Meltdowns: What the Behavior Is Asking For

Learn what your child's tantrum is asking for, plus simple ways to teach a better way to ask. We will start with a 20-minute map of the diagnosis and services pathway, then share the same tools we use with families every day, in plain language you can put to work at home.

PRACTICAL PARENT TRAINING · LED BY A BCBA

PART 1

You noticed something. Now what?

The map from first concern to evaluation, diagnosis, and free services in Florida: who can diagnose, how to beat the waitlist, and what you can start today without a diagnosis.

PART 2

Tantrums and Meltdowns: the strategies

Everything under What we will cover, in plain language you can use the same day, with time for your questions.

Pick the time that works for you

October 24

SATURDAY

6:00 PM

EST

October 28

WEDNESDAY

12:00 PM

EST

What we will cover

Why tantrums keep happening

The candy store, revisited: what happens next decides whether it happens again.

Playing detective

Three questions that tell you what the tantrum is asking for.

Teaching a better way to ask

Words and signals that work better than screaming.

It gets worse before it gets better

What to expect when you hold the line, plus prevention that stops tantrums before they start.

Hosted by

Joshua Levins

BCBA, M.S. · Creative Learning

Save your spot!

Scan the code or visit

projectearlylearning.com